

Places in a House

Room Riddles

Read and identify

How much do you know about the rooms in a house? Read the following riddles and guess which room they talk about. Write your answer in the box below.

In this room, there are books on shelves, where you can read quietly all by yourself. What is it?

In this room, you share your meals, with chairs and a table, it feels quite ideal. What is it?

In this room, you sit and relax, watching TV or chatting, perhaps. What is it?

In this room, you do laundry work, with a washer and dryer, you won't shirk. What is it?

In this room, your clothes are stored, in closets and drawers, you won't get bored. What is it?

In this room, you sleep and dream. There's often a bed and a lamp, it seems. What is it?

In this room, you can cook and bake, there's a stove and a fridge. What is it?

In this room, you wash your hands and face, take a shower, and use the space. What is it?