

Name: _____ Date: _____

EMOTIONAL ADJECTIVES

IRRITATED

ELATED

INSPIRED

RATTLED

HORRIFIED

APATHETIC

STARTLED

OUTRAGED

JOVIAL

SHOCKED

UPBEAT

PANICKED

CHOOSE THE EMOTIONAL ADJECTIVE THAT BEST FITS EACH SENTENCE BELOW.

I was _____ when he jumped up behind me.

He was _____ when he found out that he had aced the exam.

My father was _____ when he saw that I had wrecked his car.

The thunderstorm _____ the horses in the stable.

Her confidence was _____ by the accident.

The crowd gazed in _____ fascination during the crocodile feeding.

Often people are far too _____ to go out and vote.

Matt was getting _____ by his little sister's constant questions.

Many customers were _____ by the current price increases.

Michael was in such a _____ and optimistic mood yesterday.

She felt _____ and was full of self-confidence after the lecture.

For all the trouble he's been through lately, Jeff is remarkably _____.